

Introducing HFF's Community Action Network

- A statewide initiative of the Hawaii Family Forum (HFF), a voice for the people of Hawaii who care about families.
- Encouraging people in Hawaii to write and call their legislators
- Promoting the traditional family by supporting laws that:
 - Respect human life
 - Protect Hawaii's keiki
 - Support the foundational institutions of family and marriage
 - Protect victims of domestic violence and child abuse
 - Prioritize the needs of the poor and vulnerable

About the Hawaii Family Forum

Can One Person Really Make a Difference in the Community?

Does this describe you?

- Are you worried about the declining respect for moral values in our laws and culture?
- Do you wonder if anyone else believes like you that human life is sacred, that the family is under attack, and that neither liberals or conservatives speak for you on every issue?
- Have you wanted to make your voice heard in the public policy arena but feel unprepared and isolated?
- Are you looking for well researched and persuasive arguments to give your elected officials and others?
- Do you hope to change things for the better in Hawaii?

YES? Then Join the HFF Community Action Network

- We promise you: by joining the HFF Community Action Network (CAN) you will no longer feel isolated or unprepared when critical votes come up in the state legislature. Be on the winning team!
- We will add you to our alert list. Expect us to contact you 5-10 times a year with action alerts urging you to call or write your public officials on key bills.
- We will give you everything you need to act effectively. We will research, inform, and motivate you to action. Our alerts will be to-the-point, easy to read, and simple to follow.
- We will send out periodic updates on HFF activities and concerns. You can also keep informed by visiting our website for the latest news and resources at www.hawaiifamilyforum.org.
- Only the HFF office determines when to activate HFF CAN. Our list is confidential. We will not sell or give your name to any other organization.
- Network with other community organizations. HFF works with a wide coalition of community partners on a variety of issues important to the family.
- HFF gives people in Hawaii the opportunity to put their faith into action! Acting together we can make a difference. Join today by mailing the attached form.
