MAHALO for making a difference in our community!

LIVE UNITED.

Together with you, building a stronger, safer Oahu. When you give to Aloha United Way, it's investing in what you care about most—our families, our neighbors, our keiki. And because we ONLY invest in programs that are accountable and deliver results, together we are making strides towards significant change in our community.

A. Aloha United Way Community Care Fund

Allowing us to reach the root causes of our island's most pressing problems for a stronger, safer Oahu.

B. Key Issues

Early Childhood Development

Ensuring that all of Hawaii's children are healthy, loved, nurtured, safe and have access to quality childcare and early education.

Financial Stability and Independence

Providing opportunities for education, employment and awareness to help working families make ends meet and become self-sufficient.

Homelessness

Preventing families living paycheck to paycheck from becoming homeless and helping families transition back into housing; planning and developing innovative strategies to reduce homelessness.

Crime and Drug Use

Ensuring prevention and treatment programs and appropriate support services are available to people who are at risk for drug addiction and supporting efforts to reduce crime.

Emergency and Crisis Services

Helping families and individuals in crisis meet basic needs for food, clothing, safe shelter and emergency assistance, including aid in domestic violence situations.
