HFF Resources

HFF provides pro-family education, research, and resource material to the general public and the Christian community. In that way, HFF seeks to educate and equip the people of Hawaii to become more involved in the crucial issues and the formulation of laws affecting families in Hawaii. HFF provides seminars, workshops and training sessions within local churches to enhance community involvement in the public policy process. HFF also provides timely information from a pro-family perspective to the press and public policy makers. (If your church in Hawaii is interested in becoming part of the team, e-mail us at info@hawaiifamilyforum.org.
