Immaculée Ilibagiza

Immaculée Ilibagiza was born in Rwanda and studied Electronic and Mechanical Engineering at the National University of Rwanda. Her life transformed dramatically in 1994 during the Rwanda genocide when she and seven other women huddled silently together in a cramped bathroom of a local pastor's house for 91 days! During this horrific ordeal, Immaculée lost most of her family, but she survived to share the story and her miraculous transition into forgiveness and a profound relationship with God. She shares her inspirational life story in a new book "Left to Tell: Discovering God Amidst the Rwandan Holocaust" (Hay House, 2006), with all proceeds benefiting her Left to Tell Charitable Fund which helps not only orphaned children in Rwanda, but all children of Africa to build better lives.
