Worldwide Marriage Encounter offers a weekend experience designed to give married couples the opportunity to learn a technique of loving communication that they can use for the rest of their lives. It's a chance to look deeply into their relationship with each other and with God. It's a time to share their feelings, hopes and dreams with each other. The emphasis of the Marriage Encounter weekend is on the communication between husbands and wives. The weekend provides a conducive environment for couples to spend time together, away from the distractions and tensions of everyday life, while encouraging them to focus on each other and their relationship. It's not a retreat, marriage clinic, group sensitivity, or a substitute for counseling. It's a unique approach aimed at revitalizing Marriage. Every marriage deserves that kind of attention.

RETROUVAILLE

[September 8 –10, 2005]

[March 10-12, 2006] [September 8—10, 2006]

St. Stephen's Retreat Center

Call Steve and Deni Smith at (808) 222-2545

Retrouvaille, for couples in crisis, begins with a weekend experience in which husbands and wives are helped to re-establish communication and to gain insights into themselves as individuals and as a couple. This part of the program is presented by a facilitator and three married couples who have experienced disillusionment, pain, anger, and conflict. They offer hope as they share their personal stories of struggle, reconciliation and healing. The weekend is not a spiritual retreat, sensitivity group, seminar, social gathering, or counseling. Couples will not be asked to share their problems with anyone else. However, couples will be encouraged to put the past behind, look beyond hurt and pain, in order to rediscover each other in a new and positive way. Retrouvaille offers a very different message from the current secular theme of self-gratification and self-reliance. The weekend will help couples discover how listening, communication, and forgiveness are powerful aids for building a loving and lasting relationship.
